

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF RAḤMAT(MERCY) JUNE 24, 2023

For reflection:

“There should be a continual flow of funds to the national treasury of the National Spiritual Assembly, if that body wishes to properly administer the manifold and ever-increasing activities of the Faith.” — from a letter written on behalf of Shoghi Effendi, July 17, 1937

Why is it so important to have a continual flow of funds to the national treasury at this time?

The inspiring reflection below came from one of the Friends...

“Dear friends,

For the last couple of years, I have been sending the amount of my estate income tax returns to the National Fund. I have been a Bahá’í since August 1967 and I don’t know why this way of giving to the Fund never occurred to me until a couple of years ago. My bad.

Perhaps others would find this a way to give extra contributions to the Fund.

Ya Bahá’ul’Abhá!”

Unrestricted (not earmarked) contributions towards the National Fund goal allow for flexibility in supporting the many activities of the Faith. The goal set by the National Spiritual Assembly for this year (2023-2024) is $48M.
