

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF QUDRAT (POWER) NOV 4, 2023

For reflection:

“Without doubt, the social and economic development of your nation will require, especially among its younger generations, a fundamental shift in perspective, one that changes the way in which certain essential concepts are viewed—the true purpose of life, the nature of progress, the meaning of true happiness and wellbeing, and the place that material pursuits should assume in one’s individual and family life....”

— The Universal House of Justice, 2 April 2010 (to the Bahá’ís in Iran)

How does giving to the Funds create a new attitude that reflects a balanced view of our spiritual and material life?

The note below was sent to our office
by a proud Grandparent:

“I was touched and tears came to my eyes when my grandson on his tenth B’day got $... from his uncle and he handed me the money and said ‘Nana please send this to the National Fund.’ So, it’s a part of this check because I didn’t want to send cash! Thank you.”

Unrestricted (not earmarked) contributions towards the National Fund goal allow for flexibility in supporting the many activities of the Faith. The goal set by the National Spiritual Assembly for this year (2023-2024) is $48M.
